

SAFETY MEETINGS

MACDON BREAKFAST

Harvesters and their crew members were invited to MacDon's harvest kickoff breakfast May 26 in Vernon, Texas. About 200 were in attendance at the event, which included a meal, introductions of MacDon leadership, an introduction of the MacDon support trailer staff and more.

About 200 people attended the MacDon harvest kickoff breakfast in Vernon, Texas.

Karl Brooks of MacDon introduced the MacDon leadership present at the breakfast.

Doug Meister, MacDon vice president of global parts and service, spoke at the event.

The staff of the MacDon support trailers were introduced.

USCHI President JC Schemper introduced other members of the USCHI board who were in attendance.

WICHITA FALLS SAFETY MEETING

About 150 people attended the Case IH Custom Harvester Kickoff event May 25 in Wichita Falls, Texas. Harvesters and their crews were invited to enjoy a meal and participate in a walkaround of a Case IH combine, learn about new Case technology, observe the Texas Highway Patrol performing a truck walkaround and safety inspection, and more.

Harvesters and their crews were able to observe and ask questions of Texas Highway Patrol officers during a truck inspection.

Harvesters and their crew members participate in a walkaround of a Case IH combine during the Custom Harvester Kickoff.

Harvesters and their crews were able to observe and ask questions of Texas Highway Patrol officers during a truck inspection.

A group of harvesters listen as a Case IH employee talks about new Case technology.

About 150 people attended the Case IH Custom Harvester Kickoff.